UMCOR Sunday

On March 11, 2018, we will join with thousands of other congregations in receiving a special offering to support the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

When our congregation participates in UMCOR Sunday, we help cover the operating budget of UMCOR. Checks may be made out to MUMC and noted "UMCOR Sunday".

Your support makes it possible for UMCOR to direct 100 percent of all other contributions to those facing disasters. Our gifts enable UMCOR to respond in times of crisis.

UMCOR is present with heartfelt prayers, empathy, monetary donations and volunteering spirits after disaster strikes. We saw that over and over in 2017 when hurricanes Harvey, Irma and Maria battered Texas, Louisiana, Florida and Puerto Rico, and again when mudslides swept through Sierra Leone.

The United Methodist Committee on Relief is there for the long haul, thanks to your generosity. UMCOR is still present in Louisiana and West Virginia more than a year after floods devastated parts of those states. And that is just one example of UMCOR's commitment to helping survivors get back on their feet.

The work of UMCOR also goes beyond disaster relief. As millions of refugees and migrants seek safety and opportunity, UMCOR is present. All over the world, UMCOR is there, providing compassion and hope to those who desperately need it.

From the Pastor

"But our citizenship is in heaven." Philippians 3:20a

It wasn't near the record low of -7° set in 1981, but the temperature was a chilly single digit when we backed out of the driveway at 6:45 AM on January 4 to begin our journey to downtown Cleveland. Six of us were huddled together with the destination of the Carl B. Stokes U.S. Federal Courthouse. We walked into the courthouse around 7:30 and passed through metal detectors in route to the naturalization ceremony. The star of the day was our Hungarian daughter-in-law, ready to be sworn in as a US citizen. Along for support were husband, two sons, and we the in-laws. This was a big deal considering the months and months of bureaucratic logistics, quite a sum of money, and the interview. I did not know what to expect with the ceremony, other than short and sweet.

We came into a courtroom with around 50 others ready to take the oath, along with support persons. It was a sight to behold! At the front of the courtroom was a large painting of George Washington, signing the Constitution. Nearly every seat was filled with persons dressed in their finest, and beaming with excitement. After ninety minutes of gathering and further processing, at 9:00 all rose as a United States District Judge entered the chambers. Following some introductions, the judge gave a talk beginning with a statement of the importance of this decision to become a US citizen. He stressed how important immigrants have been to our nation. He expected the same from the group assembled and thanked them for coming through this legal process. It was time for the oath, and with raised right hands 50 some people agreed to:

"I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, of whom or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will bear arms on behalf of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform noncombatant service in the Armed Forces of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform work of national importance under civilian direction when required by the law; and that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help me God."

I couldn't help but entertain some thoughts and emotions. First, I was very proud of our daughter-in-law. Secondly, I had an overwhelming sense of awe for my ancestors who left family and homes to come to America. Because of them, I simply had to be born to be a citizen. Third, I was taken back by the excitement and buzz—being a US citizen is important!

Finally, I thought of this verse from Philippians 3:20, that as a Christian, while proud to be an American, ultimately my citizenship is in heaven. We're not born Christians, we make that decision, a decision to receive Jesus as Savior and Lord. Becoming a citizen of heaven is the biggest decision we ever make, eternity weighs in the balance. The danger of Christianity is that we can, in the words of German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, make this grace cheap. This is to claim the gifts of Christianity without repentance. So I close with these merged values and challenges:

"I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any sin; that I will support and defend the Christian faith; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to Jesus; that I will serve God and neighbor; and that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help me God."

More Than a Meal

We need your help for June 30, August 25, September 29, October 27 and November 24.
 During your journey in 2018, when will you be the hands, the feet, the smile of Jesus Christ? This is a great opportunity for Journey groups, Committees, and families to give back.
 Groups of 4 or more individuals are needed to sponsor a meal, plan and prepare a meal, serve during the dinner, visit with our guests or help with set up and clean up.
 For more information you may call or text Jim Post at 440-477-6130. Meals are the last Saturday of every month.

News from Commission on Missions

The new year is upon us and Missions Commission has some new and exciting ideas for ways that we can serve and share the love of Christ in our community and to those in need. We also have some on-going commitments where we need your help.

- MUMC has committed with Lake Geauga Habitat for Humanity to be one of 12 local churches participating in an Apostle Build project. We will be providing funds and volunteer manpower to build a home in Painesville during 2018. The land has been purchased and the deserving family, a single mom with a six-year-old child, selected. We will be bringing you updates once the ground is broken.
- We have committed to assist the Painesville Hispanic Alliance Church provide classes in English as a Second Language. Classes started this past fall at the YMCA and are averaging twenty people a week. The plan is to expand the program, meeting twice a week in a larger space, which will allow the group to incorporate Bible study and children's programs.
- Project Hope is a very busy shelter for the homeless, the only one in Lake County. MUMC provides a dinner only once a month on the first Wednesday of every month for 50 individuals at the shelter. It is one small way that we can be Christ's hands, providing a meal to those less fortunate than we are. Please do not be overwhelmed by the number 50. You do not need to provide the whole meal. Perhaps you would like to donate a salad, or a casserole or a meatloaf, or a dessert. Maybe you just want to help cook a meal with food that others have purchased. If you are not a cook, you could pay for a catered meal, or deliver the meal. We do not serve the meal, but we deliver it to the shelter in Painesville by 6:45 PM ready to be served. There are many small ways to assist with this ministry. Please contact Nancy Leyden who coordinates this service. Leave her a message at 440-255-1567 or nancyleyden@att.net
- More Than A Meal is another on-going opportunity to put your faith into action. Journey groups, committees, and families can sponsor a meal on the last Saturday of every month. Individuals can volunteer to be a part of planning, preparing or serving the dinner; we prepare food for 100. Maybe you prefer to set up tables or clean up after folks have eaten. If your gift is hospitality, come and visit with our guests; a very important part of this ministry is MORE than the food. Call or text Jim Post at 440-477-6130 to volunteer or get more information.

Through The Years -

This historical year for Mentor United Methodist Church gives us reason to reflect on the history, not only of our church, but of our faith itself. As we approach Easter, there is some interesting historical information about this most important day in the Christian faith. It goes without saying that Easter is the cornerstone of our faith. The resurrection of Jesus Christ gave us victory over sin and death.

While our traditions of celebrating Easter are cherished and very old, there were days in early church history when this wasn't the case. One of the biggest issues facing early Christians, in the first two centuries, about Easter was when to celebrate it. Some of the early Christian leaders from the churches in Asia, primarily the Middle East, felt that Easter should be celebrated at the same time as Passover. However, Passover is observed on the fourteenth day of the Jewish month of Nisan, the first month in the Jewish calendar. This presented a problem, as the date can fall on any day of the week. The majority of church elders wanted Easter to always be on a Sunday, the day of Christ's resurrection. This led to numerous conferences and councils and eventually, in the second century A. D., it was agreed upon to observe Easter on Sunday.

But which Sunday? This was a question that caused considerable debate. Indeed, there were some early churches who actually celebrated Easter every Sunday! Finally, the Council of Nicaea in 325 A. D. established Easter as the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. They recognized the equinox as March 21. This established the range of dates for Easter to fall anywhere from March 22 to April 25. It sounds very confusing but to make matters more confusing, The Eastern Orthodox Christians continue to calculate their date base on the Julian calendar, not the Gregorian calendar that is used in the West. They also add, that it must fall after Passover. Therefore, most years the two Easter celebrations are on different Sundays.

While these are all interesting historical facts, the one thing we must always remember is that Easter commemorates our Lord's victory for us over the forces of evil and death. And while we don't celebrate Easter every Sunday formally as some early Christians did, isn't that what we really do by attending church every week and giving thanks to Jesus Christ for our salvation? Happy Easter! He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

GEM Memorial Highlight

In December of 2017 the church received a generous memorial gift in memory of Robert F. and Mabel K. Eaton. They were long term members who joined the church in the 1940's and passed away in 1999 and 2012 respectively.

They were active in the life and ministry of the church where Mabel taught Sunday school and served as the church secretary. Their daughter Peg has warm memories of singing in the Cherub Choir. The family appreciated the rich music program and helped inspire Peg to serve her church today as organist and pianist. For that reason the memorial gift was directed to the church music ministry where it has been put to use for a timely and needed update.

This is just one or many examples where gifts, memorials and endowments enrich and bless the ministry of Mentor United Methodist Church.
