Pastor's Letter

Glory Revealed - Glory Shapes Us

*And what does the LORD require of you?
To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.
Micah 6:8*

Have you ever thought about how much the questions that we ask and the answers we accept shape our lives? Should I go to college? Should I enlist in the military? What kind of job should I pursue? Is this the person I want to spend the rest of my life with? Do I want to have children? Is this a church where I will be accepted, where I can grow in my faith? All of these questions and the decisions we make shape us.

This week, we are invited to consider how glory revealed shapes us. In the text for this Sunday, Micah 6:6-8, the people of Israel ask a series of heartfelt questions: What does God really want from us? Should we bring bigger sacrifices? More offerings? More impressive acts of worship? They are searching for the right answer—the kind of answer that will set them right with God.

God's response is both simpler and more challenging than they expect: "Do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God." This answer was meant to shape them as a people of God. To the extent they accepted God's answer, it influenced how they treated one another, how they understood success, faithfulness, and how they walked through everyday life.

That's true for us as well. The questions we ask, and the answers we live by, shape us more than we often realize.

- What does it mean to be successful?

Is it about achievement, recognition, and security, or about faithfulness, integrity, and using our gifts for others?

- What does it mean to be strong?

Is it never needing help, or having the courage to be honest, vulnerable, and open to God and one another?

- What does it mean to live a good life?

Is it staying comfortable, or stepping into compassion, generosity, and love that sometimes stretches us?

- What does God really want from me right now?

Is it more activity, or deeper trust, greater kindness, and a more humble walk with God?

Every day, we are being changed by the stories we believe, the voices we listen to, and the answers we accept. In our Glory Revealed series, we are reminded that God's glory is not just something we admire—it is something that forms and shapes us.

When God's glory is revealed in justice, mercy, and humility, it realigns our priorities. It reshapes how we see our neighbors. How we respond to conflict, to need, to difference, and to uncertainty. It reshapes what we value and who we are becoming.

Micah 6:8 calls us back to the heart of faith, not louder religion, but deeper love; not bigger displays, but more faithful living. This is how God's glory changes us into people who seek what is right, who lead with compassion, and who walk humbly, trusting that God is with us every step of the way.

My prayer this week is that we would pay attention to the questions we are asking—and allow God's gracious answers to shape us into people who reflect God's glory in everyday, beautiful, life-giving ways.

On a path of Christ-centered discipleship with you,

Pastor Steve

- February 3, 10, & 17th: Join us for a three-week study in February as we look at The Journey - Forgiveness, Restorative Justice and Reconciliation by Stephanie Hixon & Thomas W. Porter. This book intertwines stories from the Bible and recent history to illustrate the redemptive power of forgiveness, the restorative power of God's justice, and the Good News of reconciliation. Books are provided.

- February 23, March 9, 17, 24, 31, April 7: For Lent, we'll be meeting on Tuesday evenings (mostly) for the Taste and See study at the church. Ebooks are available on Cokesbury for $8 or you can find a used book on sites like Thriftbooks for a little less. If you need help purchasing, just reach out to Mackalyn.
