October Prayer Focus - Grace Is Greater

"... but God said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me." - 2 Corinthians 12: 9

Jesus wants us to know that even when difficulties arise, God's grace is steadfast. When we cry out in weakness, God will reveal His strength. When we recognize God cares for us, we come to see that God cares for others in their weaknesses, too. Pray that all those who struggle with various things ... will know God's grace! Pray for our divorce and grief Care Groups, as well as others who gather for prayer and support. Pray for caregivers, and especially our Caring Servants who extend the love of Christ to others. Pray for ministries that touch people who need to know they are not alone: More than a Meal; ESL classes; our Assisted Living Facility worship services ... What else comes to mind?

God is our strength and power. May we rely on God, and help others recognize Him at work.

"Scams Targeting Citizens" Program and Chili Lunch

Sunday, October 6 at 12:30 PM in Fellowship Hall

Join us for a chili lunch and a program featuring a Crime Prevention Officer from our local Police Department who will help us learn ways to prevent, recognize, and report scams and fraud.

This event is sponsored by Mentor United Methodist Women and is free and open to all. Invite family, friends, and neighbors to join you! No RSVP is needed, but please contact Carole Ring (umw@mentorumc.org or 255-7213 and leave a message) if you have questions.

From the Pastor

Tom and I purchased our home when snow was on the ground. Honestly, after all the snow in the back yard melted .... well, we took a deep breath!

As the months have progressed we have enjoyed working in our yard together. We have watched the yard come alive with green leaves, flowering trees, and various plants. It has been fun identifying trees, and expectantly waiting to see what a budding plant will look like. We enjoy sitting on our deck as birds feed, squirrels scurry, and deer seek to claim their place.

Oh, there is still work to do! We realize that we can't transform our small plot overnight or even in one summer. However, we're working on it and enjoying the process. I'm not sure we will enjoy raking the leaves that will soon fall. I'll keep you posted.

I am reminded of the Israelites wandering in the desert hoping for the promised land. Surely God's plan was for them to arrive in days not 4 decades. Even without GPS, traveling from A to B could not have been that difficult. Did they get confused about which cloud to follow? FORTY YEARS ...

During their travels they feared the unknown ... but God was faithful.
During their travels they were hungry and thirsty ... but God offered manna and quail and water
During their travels they became weary and grumbled ... but God kept guiding them
During their travels they feared their enemies ... but God provided leaders and strategies and victory

When we look at the landscape of our lives do we trust God's plan – promise – provision?
Do we anticipate God's faithfulness seeing us through difficulties?
Do we rely on God's peace to help us face trials?
Do we live into God's goodness and mercy and envision joy and abundance?
Do we do the work of discipleship ... following, praying, listening, trusting?

As we continue our journey with Christ may we help each other discover grace and mercy. Let us envision a community of faith where God is glorified and praised ....

Regardless of the landscape or difficulties or challenges God is at work in us and among us and through us! It's a beautiful reality.

The deep breaths we take can be because we are overwhelmed by God's goodness and the joy of possibilities! Take a deep breath!

God loves you!

May this good news give you vision for the future.

Pastor Sondra

Through The Years

Have you ever heard of a Love Feast? It is not a five star dining experience but rather a Christian fellowship meal that recalls the meals (not the Last Supper) that Jesus shared with His disciples. Its purpose was to express the sharing or fellowship enjoyed by the family of Christ. Love Feasts or Agape Meals, as they are sometimes referred to, are very old practices going back to Jewish and early Christian traditions.

John Wesley was introduced to the Love Feast during a meeting with the Moravians in Savannah, Georgia in 1737. The Moravians had begun this type of meal in Germany in 1727. The meal consists of bread, cake, crackers, or rolls along with a cup. The cup is usually water but it can be drinks such as coffee or tea. Giving for the poor was also part of the experience. Love Feasts are not to be confused with Holy Communion, which is a sacrament in the United Methodist Church. The Moravians usually sat in a circle and shared the items to be consumed. They remained quiet during the meal.

Wesley was deeply impressed by the Love Feast concept but decided that it should be a time of testimony, rather than quiet contemplation. He encouraged that Love Feasts be performed regularly. Indeed, during the early years of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States, Love Feasts were done by congregations during the long intervals when a circuit riding pastor was away. Unlike Communion, a Love Feast does not have to be administered by a member of the clergy. A leader is appointed and participants usually, but not always, sit in a circle or at a table. Wesley added hymns, prayers and scripture to the meal. Participating groups can range from a disciple group to the entire congregation. Love Feasts have also be known to be followed by a full dinner.

The Love Feast typically begins with a hymn followed by prayers. Scripture is then read which is followed by an address on those scriptures from one or several people. The bread is then passed. A collection for the poor is taken and testimonies are given. The cup is then circulated. A Love Feast cup is either two handled or three handled making it easier to pass. Individual cups can also be used as alternative vessels. Another hymn is sung and then a dismissal with blessing ends the meal. The use of Love Feasts greatly diminished over the years but are still preformed in some Methodist settings. While we don't do these meals much anymore, perhaps our famous United Methodist Potlucks are another example of showing our community and fellowship with Christ.

Fall is in full swing! Apples, pumpkin, and sweater weather is upon us. How is your family doing as you continue to disciple your children? Where can I help you in this process?

It has been great to see families on Sunday mornings either in Kids' Journey Groups, Choir, or Youth 56. Parents, are you in a Journey Group where you can cultivate your relationship with God? If not, what is holding you back? Where can I come alongside you?

At the time of this writing, I do not have anyone signed up for Spiritual Parenting. My husband says it is because no one wants to miss Monday night football... Maybe by the time you are reading this something has changed, and maybe it hasn't. How can I offer learning and growing opportunities that will meet your needs?

I am excited about offering a study on The Talk(s): A parent's guide to critical conversations about sex, dating and other unmentionables by Barrett & Jennifer Johnson. This study will look at a parent's responsibility, having "the talk", the impact of social media, when they're ready to date, the pornography problem, and discovering a better way. This will begin on Tuesday, October 15 (avoiding Monday night football...) from 6:00 to 8:00 PM and continue through November 19. Who is ready to register and learn more about this important conversation with your children?

Our first Positive Parenting Book Club is November 4 from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. The book is Becoming a Spiritually Healthy Family: Avoiding the Six Dysfunctional Parenting Styles by Michelle Anthony. "We all want to guide our children into the abundant life that Jesus offers, but when we pursue the 'more' and 'better' life that the world offers above our pursuit of Jesus, we fall into dangerous and subtle dysfunctional parenting habits." WOWZA! I look forward to the discussion that will ensue after reading this book. Will you join me?

And for something fun and festive, don't forget about the annual Fall Fest and Trunk or Treat! It will be on Saturday, October 19 from 3:00 to 5:00 pm. This is a FREE, no need to preregister event! Make your way through the trunks into the building to Fellowship Hall for games and activities. I am looking for "Trunkers" to attend with their trunks and to hand out candy. We will also need servants to assist with the festival! Who wants to be a part of our fun fall event? Looking forward to assisting you with your family's discipleship path! Please don't hesitate to ask questions and to let me know how I can help you and cheer you on!

By HIS Grace and through HIS love,

New Youth Director

We are excited to announce that Leah Nash has joined Mentor UMC as our new Director of Youth Ministries. Leah is a recent graduate of Ohio University and has a strong background in teaching and instruction. She has also been active in different United Methodist Churches and has worked as an Activity and Program Director at youth camps, including Camp Asbury. Please join us in making Leah and her husband, Chris, welcome at Mentor UMC, as they come alongside us all and assist us in living into our church's mission of leading all onto a path of Christ-centered discipleship.

Thank You

A special thank you to the many talented musicians that shared their special gifts with our church family during the summer months. Our Thursday evening chapel services and Sunday morning traditional services were blessed by your special music. Thank you for praising our Lord through your music.

Library Notes

The Library Committee continues to work on improving the Merkel Library by reviewing the inventory of books, DVD's, etc. to make sure that your church library is meeting the needs of Mentor United Methodist Church. Over the past month, many new books have been added to the shelves including materials for youth and adults. We are working on setting up monthly events to highlight specific books that we feel will be of interest to the congregation. This is a lot of work, bear with us as we implement our visions for the library.

You can help the committee with our focus for October. We will be working to get any books or other materials returned to the library that may be past due. Please check around your house and see if this may apply to you. Thanks for your help with this effort to retrieve past due Merkel Library materials. Also, if you have any suggestions to improve the library operations please let us know that too! Thanks for your help.

You can contact the library via email at library@mentorumc.org
