DEAR EASTER PEOPLE,

The good news of Jesus continues to make a difference in people's lives...but we must take time to acknowledge! We must take time to share! We must take time to listen! As we continue to explore how our faith and health intersect, we are reminded that like the earliest church, recorded in the book of Acts, God works and change happens, and the world is impacted. Yet we must be open to God's movement. A fellowship of believers is devoted to biblical teaching, fellowship, the breaking of bread, and prayer. God is praised; people gather, and care for one another.

The Risen Christ is still about making a difference! In a broken world, the fellowship of believers is essential. We help one another, and then the world knows that God is still at work.

This weekend, we will baptize...we will hear professions of faith...we will be invited, once again, to trust and follow a God who is alive and at work among us. We are the church together. We promise to help one another grow in Jesus...and serve Jesus...so we will honor Jesus...and help others know Jesus.

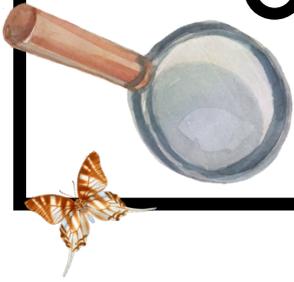

You don't splash in baptism's waters and then never again find refreshment and strength in the life-giving water of Jesus. You don't just profess your faith once and then stop growing and learning. You don't just say you will follow Jesus and then never go where he leads you. This is not the fellowship of believers.

Let's nurture Christ at work within us and among us! Always!

Pastor Sondra
